

FORWARD TOGETHER SCHOLARSHIP

Applicants should fill in this scholarship application form carefully and submit for review and consideration. Please be aware that if the written application scores high enough, you will be contacted for a scholarship interview with a member of Women in the Economy's technical team.

Applicant Information
1. Full name:
2. Women in Economy Participant ID Number:
3. Email address:
4. Telephone number:
5. Second telephone number:
6. This next section of the application form is a written essay, and this is your opportunity to convince the scholarship committee why you should receive assistance. In one page or less, tell the scholarship committee about yourself including what motivates you to look for a new or a better job. Explain in your own words how you will ensure that you succeed in completing the training, and what steps you will take after the training to get a new or a better job. If you have worked or had an internship or apprenticeship before, please tell us what that experience was like for you. Finally, describe any activities including school projects, community service, volunteer work, etc. in which you have been involved and explain what you achieved and the result of your activity (example: how did your activity help your organization, your family, a business, or the community?). (maximum 500 words)
Course and Fee Information (from course description)

There is no charge to apply for the Forward Together Scholarship and no Training Institutes or other third-party should ask you for a processing fee to submit a Forward Together Scholarship Form. Please note there is NO ADVANTAGE to applying through a Training Institute or any other third-party. If anyone asks you for a fee to submit your application, please report this to hotline@promote-wie.com.

7. Institution name:
8. Course name:
9. Student contribution (from course description):
10. Province:

I have read and understood the terms and conditions of the High Value Skills scholarship program and accept them. I certify that I can pay my student contribution for the selected course. I am confident and prepared to fully participate and complete all the required course work for my selected training program. I give permission to Women in the Economy to verify my documents, and credentials to assure their validity. I understand that scholarships are available only to eligible Afghan women who desire to advance their careers and get a job. I affirm that I have completed this application myself, including section 6, and that all of the information provided is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Signature _____

Date _____

*To submit your Forward Together Scholarship application, please email this completed document to:

submit@promote-wie.com